SUKKAT SHALOM

Challenge #4

Create your sukkat shalom!

You've learned a lot about what sukkat shalom means for yourself and others.

Now it's time to create it!

Consider...

- What does your sukkat shalom look like?
- What does your sukkat shalom feel like?
- How would you create it?
- How would you build it?
- What materials would you use?
- What colors would you include?

Your challenge is to create your sukkat shalom!
Follow the steps on page 2.

SUKKAT SHALOM

Challenge #4

You may think BIG-scale or small-scale for this challenge.

STEP ONE: Start by spending some time sketching out or drawing your sukkat shalom. Yes, try and draw it, even if it is a feeling or person.

STEP TWO: Decide if this will be BIG or small.

- If you go BIG-scale - Create a full-size space that represents your sukkat shalom! It could be a tent or fort, a reading nook, any type of structure. Just keep in mind the ideas of peace, safety and protection.
- If you go small-scale - Consider what kind of building materials you will use - interlocking plastic bricks, blocks, cardboard box(es), Minecraft, found objects, recycled materials, etc.

STEP THREE: Add to your sukkat shalom, whether big or small! Consider: What feelings do you want to feel in this space? What colors will you use? What decorations will you add? How will you make it feel safe, peaceful, and joyful?
