

סִפְּת שְׁלוֹם

SUKKAT SHALOM

Challenge #5

Reflect on and bless your sukkat shalom.

You've defined sukkat shalom for yourself and learned about what it means for others. Then, you created a sukkat shalom! Now, its time to reflect on your creation and bless it.

Some questions to think about:

- How do you feel after building your sukkat shalom?
- How would your sukkat shalom protect you from harm?
- What would happen if someone broke your sukkat shalom?
- If your sukkat shalom was destroyed, how would you start again?
- How could you bring your sukkat shalom with you everywhere you go?
- Are you willing to share your sukkat shalom with others? If so, what feelings do you think they would feel?

Your challenge is to reflect on your sukkat shalom and then create a blessing. Follow the steps on page 2.

סִכַּת שְׁלוֹם

SUKKAT SHALOM

Challenge #5

REFLECT

Make a giant word list.

Think about your sukkat shalom and write down as many words as you can that describe it. Many, many! Tons of words! Use the big questions asked in the video to help you think about it in different ways!

BLESS

Create a blessing of peace, safety and wholeness for your sukkat shalom.

What blessing would you give it? You can use words from your list or choose a few that sum up what your sukkat shalom means to you. A blessing can praise, it can ask for things and it can thank. The choice is yours, so decide how you want to bless your sukkat shalom. You may start it traditionally in Hebrew (בְּרוּךְ אַתָּה... baruch atah - Praised are You) or any way that you wish. Be thoughtful, be creative.

Flipgrid

Then, share your blessing to Flipgrid.
